Special Dispatches to the Arizona Miner, By Western Union and U. S. Military Lines.

Foreign and Domestic.

Washington, June 1.—The President has nominated Gen. Benj. H. Bristow, of Kentucky, Secretary of the Treasury, vice Richardson, who is nominated to be judge of court of claims.

The public debt was reduced $4,500,000 during the month of May.

Senate bill granting the widow of General Canby, assassinated by Modoc Indians, a pension of $50 per month, passed the House.

New York, June 1.—Review of the markets for the week ending Saturday last, shows that commercial affairs are fast settling down to regular summer dullness. The general markets have been devoid of animation during the past week, and it is felt that the normal condition of affairs must soon be reached. The nation's great wealth of resources is unimpaired, and there is a hopeful feeling for the future. In the general markets there are few features of interest to California merchants.

San Francisco, June 1.—At the local option election in Oakland on Saturday the "No License" party carried the day. At the election in Vallejo, "License" won.

Judge Dunn of Arizona arrived on the overland train from the East to-day.

Cyrus W. Field leaves for Denver, Colorado, to-morrow.

Territorial Dispatches.

TUCSON.

Tucson, May 30.—About two o'clock yesterday afternoon two Mexicans came into Camp Lowell and stated that the Apaches had made another raid on Leopold Carrillo's rancho and got away with about fifty head of cattle.

Col. Crittenden, commander of Camp Lowell, at once sent out a detachment of cavalry in pursuit of the rascals. The Mexicans did not know the number of Indians. Carrillo's rancho is only a few miles from Lowell.

Tucson, June 1.—Mr. H. C. Hooker, just in from Camp Grant, brings news that a party of Indian scouts sent out from San Carlos to bring in Cokerney, returned on the 26th ult., bringing his head. They trailed the old rascal to within three miles of Tucson, where they surprised and killed him and three others in camp.

The report that the Apaches had run off fifty head of stock from Carrillo's rancho proves to be incorrect.

The scouting party which went out from Camp Lowell after the Indians returned on Saturday and report finding two head of cattle that had been killed, but were unable to strike any trail as the Indians had no stock and must have been few in numbers.

Col. D. Taylor, paymaster, and Dr. H. Lippincott, with an escort, left Tucson for Prescott this a. m.

Tucson, June 2.—The Albuquerque Republican Review, of May 23d, has the following: "A letter from San Carlos, a settlement two miles south of the mouth of the Rio Puerco, dated May 19th, says a blood-thirsty deed was perpetrated on the evening of the 17th inst., two miles north of the Rio Puerco. The murdered men were Mexicans named Tomas Valencia and Juan Arroyo Garcia. Valencia had a reputation about his neck and was dragged on the ground until life was extinct. Corrojo Garcia was taken out of his house, felled with an axe and afterwards had his throat cut with the same instrument. The parties who committed this horrible outrage were six or seven in number, masked and painted. In Valencia's house there was a woman and two boys, and of Corrojo's wife and six or seven children. None of the murders were recognized as they would not allow the families of the murdered men out of their houses. The above is the substance of the letter in question. Additional details up to the time of writing, are to the effect that Mr. T. Valencia is the same old man who was present at the two sessions of the U. S. District Court held here last year, he being then implicated in a lawsuit about some land at the place where the murder was committed. Mr. Garcia was a neighbor of his and assisted him in his lawsuit, being a lawyer by profession. The former was about sixty years old, the latter about thirty-five, both were men well known and greatly respected in this place. It is time a stop was put to these terrible deeds so disgraceful to the Territory and alarming to its people. An example should be made of some of these fiends in human shape, who have committed the bloody deeds it has been our painful duty to record during the past two years. As we have said before, when commenting upon similar atrocities, the people themselves are to blame for not coming forward and testifying against such savages. Unless they do so the courts are, of course, powerless, and the criminals bound to escape.

WICKENBURG.

Wickenburg, May 30.—Mr. Gird came in from Hualapai this morning.

The mail wagon from Phoenix brought Judges Rush and Alsap, who are en route to Prescott.

J. R. Frink's large herd of American cattle reached Martinez yesterday.

Extensions of the Vulture lead are being worked.

Wickenburg, June 2.—Pedro Blanco's train arrived from Ehrenburg with merchandise for Peralta.

Wells' train came in last evening from Antelope valley, loaded with potatoes.

Henry Garber's train loaded with ten thousand pounds of flour for Peralta, will arrive to-day.

YUMA.

Yuma, May 30.—There is quite a stream of water running through the town and the Colorado river is still slowly rising.

There is a rumor current here that a member of Vasquez' band is here, waiting to go by the steamer to the mouth of the Colorado and to some Mexican port.

Yuma, June 2.—Weather gradually growing warmer.

The Colorado river is still slowly rising. No damage has been done as yet.

Mr. Chas. Baker arrived from Castle Dome mine and reports everything flourishing.

The body of the other lost prospector has not yet been found.

The steamer with passengers from C. S. N. Co's steamship Montana is expected to-morrow.

Yuma, June 1.—Weather pleasant.

The Colorado river is still rising, but very slowly. The general opinion is that although it is coming slowly now, the flood will exceed that of the Gila river in January last by considerable. The amount of water passing off is immense, the river running very swiftly. The steamer Cocopal, Jack Mellon Captain, left for the mouth of the river yesterday at daylight, taking a large list of passengers. Among others are the following: Capt. A. F. Rockwell, wife and two children; Lieut. A. L. Clarke and wife; C. H. Kenyon and wife; Mrs. Andrew Cronly, and Lieut. J. H. Hurst, with thirteen military convicts under his charge.

Lieut. Taylor, 23d Infantry, and Mrs. Lord of Tucson, arrived from California by stage on Saturday evening.

THE WAY TO "MAKE MONEY."—Upon the whole, the thing to do is to give your note. "Promise to pay" is money; how easy to make it. The absurd notion that anything of necessity follows the issuance of a promise, except its acceptance and adoption as a medium of exchange, has exploded. Mankind have been fooling themselves and making themselves unhappy long enough with the ridiculous notion that performance necessarily follows promise. It is reserved for this glorious Republic and the eminent financiers and statesmen of this period to discover that promise to pay money are not only as good as money but absolutely better, since they can be much more easily made, are lighter and more compact, and can be more widely diffused. Give your note. Government does it. Why may not the individual citizen? And when your mischievous enemy of free institutions brings to Government its promise and says, "will you please redeem this promise?" Government—there's nothing mean about the Government—takes it up without a word and—gives him another. Why may not the citizen do so, and expand his credit to the full capacity of his inkstand? And if the malignant foe of free institutions, in that fiendish passion for investigation and inquiry which has brought to grief some of our purest and best, pursues the subject, holding up the engraved promise between his thumb and finger, with "may I ask when the United States will pay?" the Government looks him squarely in the eye and says, "This is the greatest and most growing country on the globe, and the business, we do and expect to do is so immense that we have to keep making new promises notes to do it with. The question when we shall pay shows a bad heart, as well as indecent and prying curiosity. The promises to pay are infinitely better than the pay; everybody takes them and wants more of them. If you are dissatisfied you had better move away." Why may not the citizen say his business is increasing, and keep putting out promissory notes to do it with in the same way Government does?—[N. Y. Tribune.

How to KERN BURNING COOL.—Get a large flower pot, plug up the hole with a sound cork, and seal it. Now put a quarter-brick, or other square, heavy body, in the bottom, to serve as a support for a second, but smaller pot, which must be plugged up in the same manner. Place a dish under the other pot, and cover with any cover you please, providing it is not metallic. Now fill the space between the inner and outer pot with water. The butter will keep as firm as a rock, as cool as a cucumber.

Sydney Smith said: "Among the smaller duties of life I hardly know any one more important than that of not priding where praise is due. Reputation is one of the prizes for which men contend. It is, as Mr. Burke calls it, 'the cheap defence and ornament of nations and the nurse of many execrations; it produces more labor and more talent than twice the wealth of a country could ever rear up. It is the coin of genius, and it is the impious duty of every man to bestow it with the most scrupulous justice and the wisest economy.'"

It would appear, from reading that part of our Yuma dispatches relating to the unfortunate prospectors of Castle Dome, that two of the dead bodies have been found, which being the case, leaves no sort of doubt as to the sad fate of the other, as he, too, must have perished of thirst.

A "friend" of ours recently advised us to procure an appointment as Indian agent, just as if he looked upon us as a man who could, if necessary, pray and steal. But, thank God, he was mistaken in his summing.

The steamship Montana has arrived at the mouth of the Colorado.
